

Blood Camp at Noble Group

A heartfelt initiative to bolster public health and foster a stronger and healthier community: Noble Group has launched year-long blood donation camps, supported by local authorities. These camps would occur at regular intervals throughout the year. Thanks to the collective efforts of dedicated partners, employees, and volunteers, Noble Group has collected 102 units of blood from its first camp of 2025, providing a vital lifeline to those in need.