

The International Fair of Luanda (FILDA 2025) has long served as a symbol of Angola's economic and social progress. It is a key platform that brings together domestic and international business partners. FILDA boosts productive capacity and forges new economic connections. Noble Group participated in the fifth edition of the fair, presenting its industrial achievements that have earned global recognition and contributions to the community..